Folio 107: In 1531, a wondrous animal...

, which was all grey and hairy, with a bearded man’s head, four feet and sharp claws, was caught by the Bishop’s huntsmen in the forest in Salzburg. It was taken to the court, but it did not want to eat or to drink and it wasted away horribly.