

THOMAS FEARNLEY

(Fredrikshald, 1802 - Munich, 1842)

Head of a goose

oil on paper

42 x 41 mm

Provenance:

Hofjägermeister Thomas Fearnley (only son of the artist) 1841-1927

Shipowner Thomas Fearnley (grandson of the artist), 1880 –1961

Private collection, Oslo, 1960's - 2017

Taken from an album assembled by the artist's grandson, this study of the head of a goose is one of three studies that correspond closely to pencil sketches of geese drawn by the artist in a sketchbook dated 1829, held at the National Gallery of Norway.
