

HERMANN WEYER

(Coburg, 1596 - after 1621)

The healing of the blind man of Bethsaida (recto); Landscape with a huntsman and a dog (verso)

monogrammed and dated lower right: HEW.1616; inscribed in later hand lower right: 25; inscribed on verso lower right: Louise - Callot

pen and black ink, grey wash, heightened with white, on paper prepared with yellow wash (recto); pen and black ink (verso)

165 x 285 mm

Provenance:

Private aristocratic collection, France, since late 19th century

Purchased by Princeton University Art Museum