

Folio 94: "In 1527, a gruesome wind from Turkey....

... threw great hordes of locusts into the kingdom of Poland, which then caused great harm to the people and the livestock. The locusts were grey and gold-coloured, as it is painted here"