

Folio 109: "1531, the comet's tail, as it first appeared...

in much of the High German land around the 10th day of August and then was seen for many nights in the sky – longer than a rice skewer, one and a half feet wide - 1531 years after the Nativity"