

Folio 52: "In 1300 A.D., a terrible comet appeared in the sky... and in this year, on St Andrew's Day, an earthquake shook the ground so that many buildings collapsed. At this time, Pope Boniface VIII established the first jubilee year."