

PETER PAUL RUBENS

(Siegen, 1577 - Antwerp, 1640)

Head of a bearded man in profile to the right pen and brown ink, heightened with white irregular shape, made up below and right, 90 x 75 mm.

on an eighteenth century mount

Provenance:

John Clerk, Lord Eldin (1757 – 1832)

His sale, Winstanley & Sons, Edinburgh, 14th – 29th March, 1833, part of lot 95, 9/-

Purchased by Sir Archibald Campbell, 2nd Bt. (1769 – 1848)

By descent to Sir Ilay Campbell, Bt.

Christie's, London, Highly Important Old Master Drawings, 26th March 1974, lot 80, pl. 37

Purchased at the above by the previous owner

Private collection, London

Literature:

Glasgow City Art Gallery, The Campbell Collection, 1953, no. 16

ACQUIRED BY THE HUNTERIAN MUSEUM AND ART GALLERY, GLASGOW