

HYACINTHE RIGAUD

(Perpignan, 1659 - Paris, 1743)

Portrait of Joseph Jean-Baptiste Fleuriau d'Armenonville (1661-1728) Conseiller d'Etat drawn in c. 1708

black and white chalk and black ink, grey wash, heightened with white on blue paper

378 cm x 293 mm

Provenance:

Private collection, Switzerland

Literature:

Stephane Perrau, Hyacinthe-rigaud-over-blog.com, article, 20 september 2014; Quand Fleuriau d'Armenonville retrouve Hyacinthe Rigaud

Ariane James-Sarazin, Catalogue raisonne des oeuvre de Rigaud, to be included in this forthcoming publication

Acquired by the Bowdoin College Museum of Art