

CARL HUMMEL

(Weimar, 1821 - Weimar, 1907)

Cypresses, Narni, 1844

inscribed: Inv. 205 (lower right)

watercolor on pencil on light cardboard

320 × 424 mm

Provenance:

from the artist's estate (1943-1993 preserved in the Schlossmuseum Weimar)
Private collection, Germany

This watercolour was painted during a trip through Italy and Sicily in 1842-1846. The nature of the landscape and the treatment of light and colour corresponds to studies done by Hummel in the summer of 1844 in the small town of Narni in Umbria.
